Daniel Rachere Somngesi

I'm a final year BCom Informatics student and a tech enthusiast interested in Software/Web development (C#/ASP.NET Core/MVC/Angular/JavaScript), systems analysis, systems infrastructure and integration, database development (SQL) and administration, network communications, and lastly, UI/UX design. I'm constantly refining, building, and improving my IT skills to stay relevant, competitive, and knowledgeable in modern technologies because this field requires someone who is a lifelong learner and passionate.
